

major steps, require the right and urgent steps to be taken, according to a press release.

Meanwhile, international award-winning Canadian filmmaker Elio Sulikali along with some members including two local high altitude climbers, Periz Ali and Javed, is currently at the K2 base camp, plotting the heroic actions of the climbers to make a documentary on their incredible achievements, and also narrates the difficulties he is currently facing in shooting the movie.

Praying Muhammad Ali Sadpara, he said the famed Pakistani mountaineer was amongst the greatest mountaineers of his times as he has a vast experience in climbing peaks and mountains of 8,000 meters and above, both in winter and winter. His accomplishment of first winter ascent of Nanga Parbat is legendary.

"I sat with Sadpara and listened to him as he told me incredible stories of conquering snow-capped peaks in winter while ascending and descending 8,000 meters peaks over the years," Elio Sulikali explained.

Elio Sulikali said the repeated trauma of getting from his side to extremely high altitude were especially impressive considering he (Sadpara) still had 10 fingers and 10 toes.

He (Muhammad Sadpara) recounted how one year after an especially difficult winter expedition he returned home with frostbite on his fingers and used a sheep's skin as a substitute with approximately warmed water to heal his extremities.

Explaining the difficulties at K2, Elio Sulikali said it had been a pretty acid side over the past 30 days. "I'll be lying if I said I was not nervous because my mistake up there can cost you your life." —Correspondent

As a result, the court directed the PFCM to a field general court martial (FGCM) to allegedly providing "official secrets" regarding military operations in Pakistan to an official of the UK's Security Intelligence Service (known as MI6).

A bench consisting of Chief Justice Qazi Raza Raza and Justice Saif-Ul-Usman dismissed a petition filed on behalf of Imran Khan's brother, Omer Khan, against his trial by the FGCM under the Pakistan Army Act.

Concluding that being a civilian, Imran Khan was not covered by that law, the court had requested the court to declare the trial illegal, without jurisdiction and based on mala fide.

Imran Khan, who is also a former eight defender, was taken into custody on Nov 15, 2025, near Swabi and was kept in a cell. In the last year, a high court bench headed by the then high court chief justice, Waqar Akram Rizvi, had stayed the trial and issued orders to the respondents, including defence ministry, seeking their response on the petition.

In its detailed judgment on the petition, the bench has reproduced the charges under which the detainee has been tried by the FGCM. He has been tried on eight charges falling under the Official Secrets Act.

In all eight charges, he has been accused of communicating with an official of MI6, Michael Stratton, in different stages in 2008 and providing him with 22 covert information regarding military operations in different areas of Pakistan, including Suiyani, Swat and South Waziristan.

Some argued that the nature of the charges was based on mala fide as MI6 official Michael Stratton, who was the in-law of a retired general of Pakistan Army, had not been associated with the case despite being present in the country.

Deputy attorney general Asim Javed contended that the FGCM had the exclusive jurisdiction under the Army Act to try not only military personnel but also civilians, who are subject to that Act.

The bench ruled: "In the present case, the arguments of the applicants of the petitioner that the allegations as mentioned in the charges do not constitute any offence under the Official Secrets Act, 1923, cannot be appreciated at this stage for the reason that so far as maintenance has been laid by the prosecution. Thus, this argument, at this stage seems premature."

Some argued that the nature of the charges was based on mala fide as the alleged agent of MI6 had not been prosecuted, the bench ruled. "Though these arguments were somewhat cogent in light of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of 'Ghulam Abrar Nizami' however, since the prosecution is at initial stage and there is no conclusive evidence before us that the detainees were intentionally singled out for prosecution and despite the availability of the availability of Michael Stratton in Pakistan, he was not tried for the said offence."

"Let the trial be completed, and then this question can well be raised by the detainee before the appropriate forum established by the court," the court ruled.

The bench has referred to different Supreme Court judgments, especially in the FII All case (PLD 1975 SC 598), in support of its decision.

Four of a family die on motorway in Swabi

SWABI: Four members of a family, including three women, heading from Peshawar were killed and three others injured when two cars overtook after hitting each other on the Swabi Motorway here on Sunday night. Rescue 1122 officials said.

They said the accident occurred due to over-speeding near the Samala Interchange. Rescue 1122 personnel and police pulled out four bodies and three injured from the cars and shifted them to a hospital in Mardan. They said the family was travelling in two cars from Swabi to Peshawar.

Three killed in the accident were identified as Zahid Shah, 30, Suroosh Begum, 40, Nazamunnisa, 34, and Rojya Begum, 42. Salim Khan, husband of Nazamunnisa, was seriously injured in the accident.

Meanwhile, a tractor was killed when it was hit by a truck loaded with stones on the Swabi-Jhelum Road. The deceased was identified as Kamran Khan of Swabi District.

The truck driver escaped the scene, leaving behind the vehicle. The tractor pulled over on the right side of the road. Apparently, a container loaded with cotton bolls was turned into ashes on the Topo-Gardner Ammal Industrial Estate Road, Rescue 1122 officials said.

The container was going to the industrial units. But when it reached near its destination it caught fire. No casualty was occurred as both the driver and the helper left the burning vehicle.

A local fire tender and Rescue 1122 staff took those bodies to get out the fire.—Correspondent
