

CBL

GIT & LIVER MODULE WEEK 8

A 40 years old male, who is a known case of HBsAg positive developed yellowish discolouration and abdominal distension for past 2 weeks.

O/E: Jaundice present, abdomen distended, liver span 8 cm, spleen palpable 3 fingers below the costal margin, fluid thrill present.

1. What complication has the patient developed?
2. What other complications can he develop?
3. What could be the cause of jaundice in this patient?
4. What investigations are required?
5. What is SAAG ratio?
6. How will you manage this patient?