

Learning objective of celiac disease

Student should be able to explain following at the end of the section:

1. Define celiac disease and its etiology
2. Explain the pathophysiology of celiac disease (including immune mediated mechanism and intestinal damage)
3. Clinical and Diagnostic criteria (including morphology/serological testing)
4. Identify the syndromic associations and complication of untreated celiac disease.
5. Integrate the pathological findings with clinical information to diagnose celiac disease .