ATTENTION

Students of all Batches of First - Final Professional MBBS

Subject: Submission of Undertaking for Attendance Deficiency

It is notified for the information of all MBBS students that as per PMDC regulations, a minimum of 85% attendance is mandatory for eligibility to appear in all internal evaluations, modules, and professional examinations.

All students who currently have attendance less than 85% are required to submit a Letter of Undertaking stating that they will improve their attendance performance in the next module to fulfill the PMDC requirement.

Failure to submit this Letter of Undertaking within the stipulated time will result in your disqualification from appearing in the forthcoming internal evaluations.

You are directed to submit your undertaking to the Coordination Cell Admin Section, DMC Office, by 1st July 2025.

This action is being taken to ensure compliance with PMDC guidelines and to facilitate your eligibility for future assessments.
