ATTENTION

Students of Dow Medical College

All students are hereby informed that, staying in the campus after the college timings is only allowed for using library. Staying back after 3:00pm for socializing and leisure activities is not allowed for any student, including hostel residents. Therefore, all those students who study in library after college timings must strictly avoid sitting in the corridors, canteen and other areas after using library and must leave the campus immediately upon being free from studies.

A strict compliance with these directives shall be ensured by all and no argument shall be made with the security staff serving to ensure discipline in the Campus.
