

SBL Station 1

This 24 Years old married female comes with worsening headache for the past 15 days. Pictures show the fundus of the left eye. Similar findings also noted at right eye. Visual acuity was normal in both eyes with normal pupillary reactions. Patient was referred to the neurosurgical department to measure the intracranial pressure. Intracranial pressure was found elevated. On MRI there was no space occupying lesion.

