URGENT NOTICE

In connection with the recent incidents involving faculty and students being hurt by cricket balls within the college compound, a temporary restriction is hereby imposed on playing cricket within the college premises, effective immediately. This decision has been taken to ensure the safety of all individuals on campus.

All students are directed to cooperate with this temporary restriction and refrain from playing cricket within the college compound until appropriate alternate arrangements are made for facilitation.

Failure to comply with this restriction may result in disciplinary action as per student code of conduct.
