

DERMATOLOGY

SBL 2

A 10 years old boy presented in dermatology department with a lesion on scalp for last 3 months. On examination there was a boggy swelling with pussy discharge. The size of the swelling was about 2x2 cm in diameter and was located at vertex. The child was afebrile and there was no other positive finding in general physical examination.

